

We are regular if not constant listeners of K-Love Radio which could be effected by the expansion of LPFM stations. This station if family-safe and can listen anytime of the day to positive, encouraging music and commentary. The loss to our community would be enormous should we lose this service.